

DELHI MODERN PUBLIC SCHOOL, PAMPORE

Class: 3rd

Subject: S.st

Study Material: Term-I

Lesson no.12

Topic: Maps and Directions

This lesson tells us about maps and different directions .A map is an accurate drawing of an area while as a sketch is a rough drawing of an area. There are four main directions i.e east , west , north and south. The sun rises in the east and sets in the west . An instrument that shows the directions is known as compass.

Day 1:

Read lesson no. 12 (Half) underline , important words and learn them.

Day 2:

Read lesson no. 12 (Full) , underline important words and learn them.

Day 3:

Do part (A) and B on book and also learn them.

A) Oral questions

1. A map
2. East , west , north and south
3. West
4. South , west

B) Fill in the blanks:

1. East 2. West 3. North 4. South 5. South –east

Day 4:

Do part C and D on book and learn them.

c) Write true or false:

1. True 2. False 3. True 4. True 5. False

D) Choose the correct answer :

- i) b (sketch) ii) c (all of these)
- iii) b (west) iv) c (compass)

Day5:

Do part E on notebook

E) Answer these:

Ans1: A map is an accurate drawing of an area.

Ans2: A map is useful to us in many ways as:

i) It can accurately show the position of rivers , places , roads etc.

ii) It helps to find the distance between things shown on a map.

Ans3: A map has a scale that helps to find the distance between places.

Ans4: A compass is an instrument that shows us the directions.